VI Story . . .

FRIENDSHIP

See me standing here
I'm not asking for your friendship
I'm not asking for your hand —
Just a little help in getting through the day.
Give me a smile
and I'll be right on my way . . .
feeling better
knowing someone cares a bit.

No, I'm not asking to be one of the "In" crowd
I wasn't born for that.
But I'd like to be accepted
as another human being.
I have feelings and I don't like to stand alone.

But if that's what it takes to be myself
Well, I guess that I'll just have to walk alone a little longer.
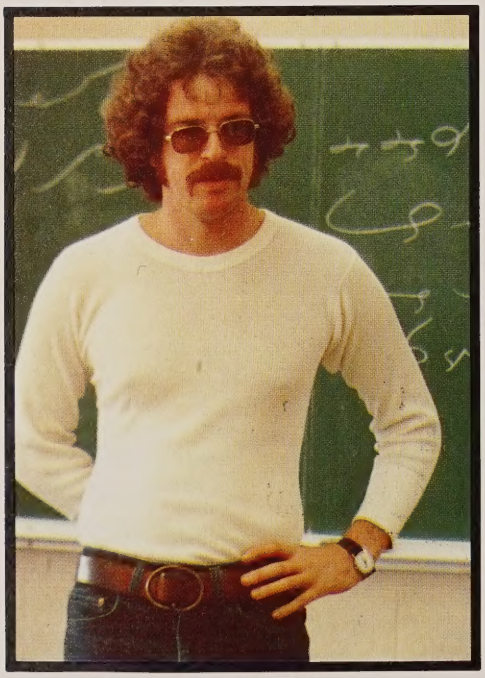
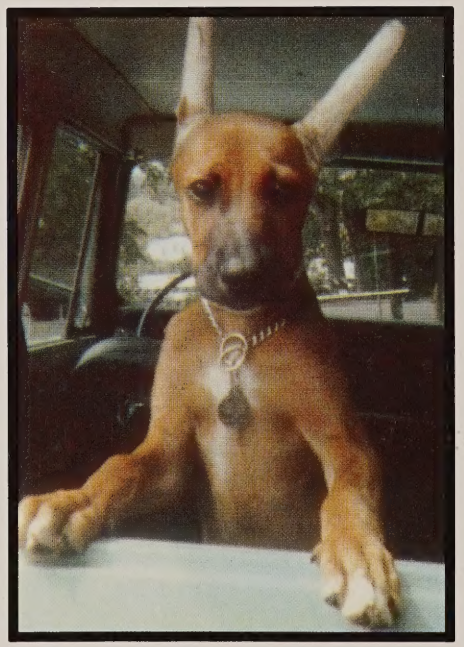
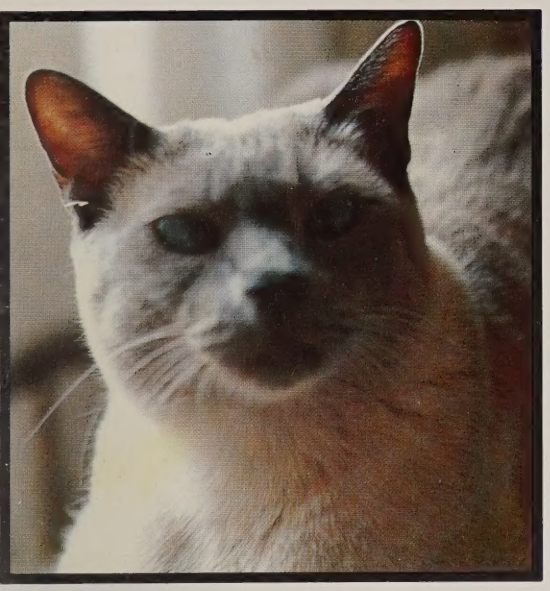
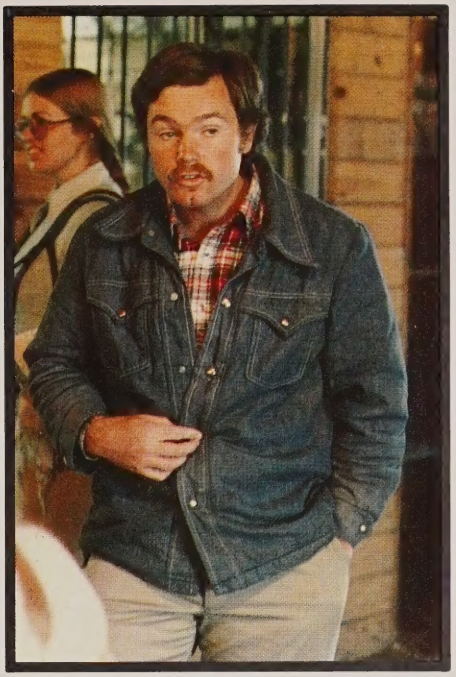
Then someday
I'll have a friend who's really true.
Who knows my friend
it may be you.









It was the beginning of another year at V.I. — for the freshmen it was their first, but for the other returning students it was another year of not knowing what to expect.

New faces were everywhere, but behind each and every one of them there was a smile . . .

"What is beautiful is a joy for all seasons and a posses sion for all eternity."

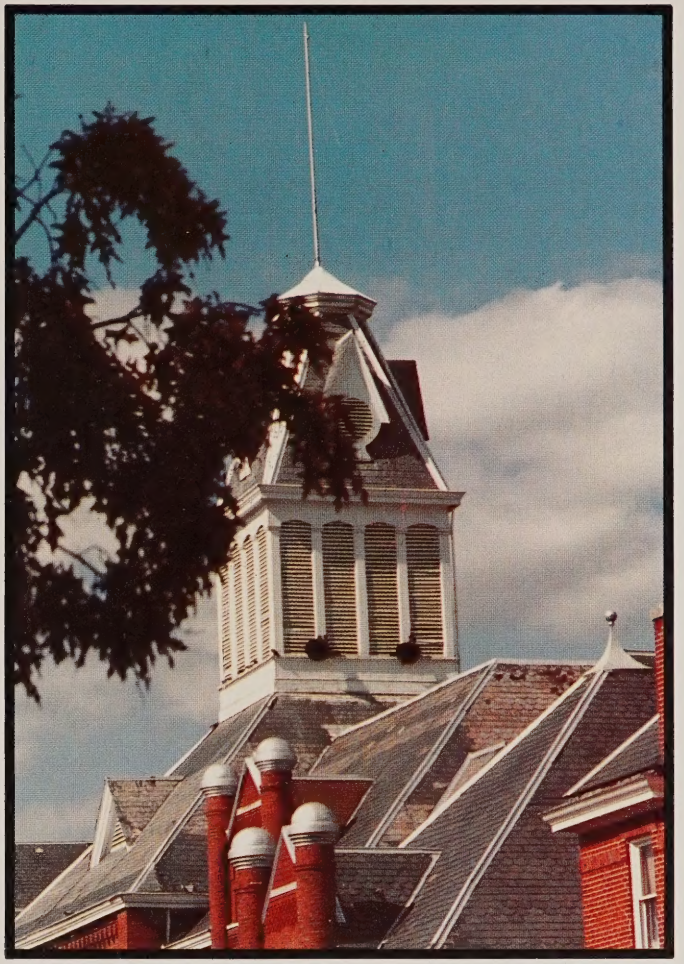
OSCAR WILDE

Happiness is many things
All found in different ways.
It's the rising of the golden sun
And coming of new days.

Happiness is many things . . .
A brook rippling soft and low,
A neighbor stopping by to say
a friendly, bright "hello."



Happiness is gold of setting sun
And rainbow gay,
Perhaps a star to wish upon
At dawning of the day.

COLLEGE LIFE.
THAT'S WHAT V.I. IS ALL ABOUT . . .
AND THOSE CLASSES THAT SEEM TO LAST FOREVER.
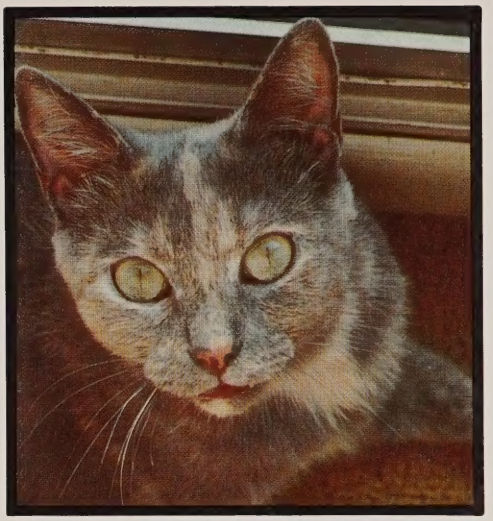
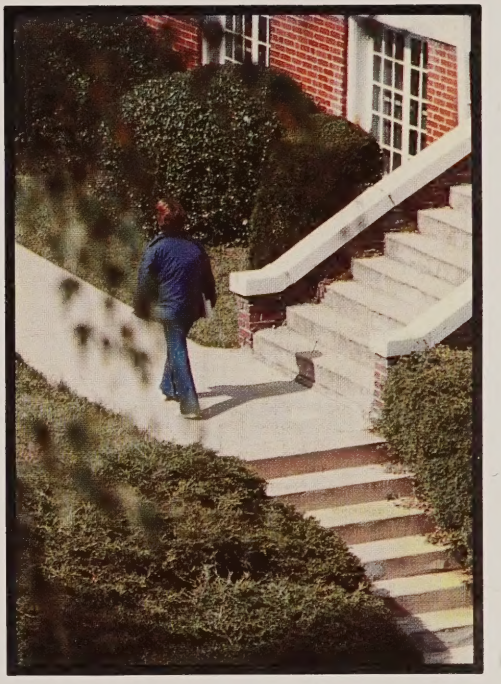
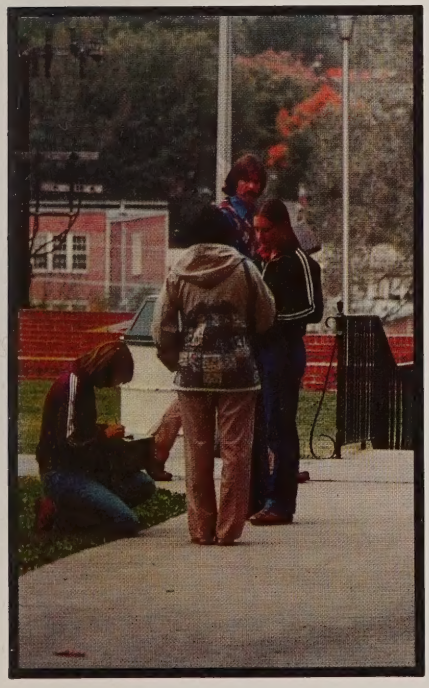
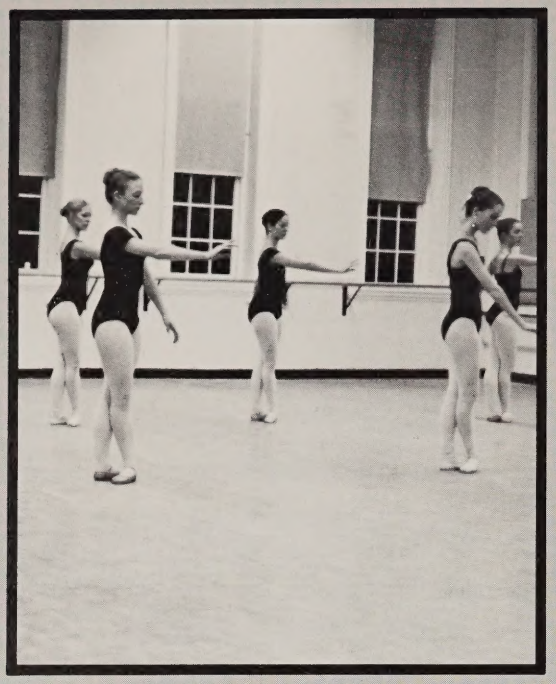
YOU WERE LUCKY IF YOUR
CLASS WAS CANCELED ONLY ONCE
A YEAR.
THE GOOD AND BAD TIMES —
THAT'S WHAT LIFE'S ALL ABOUT . . .

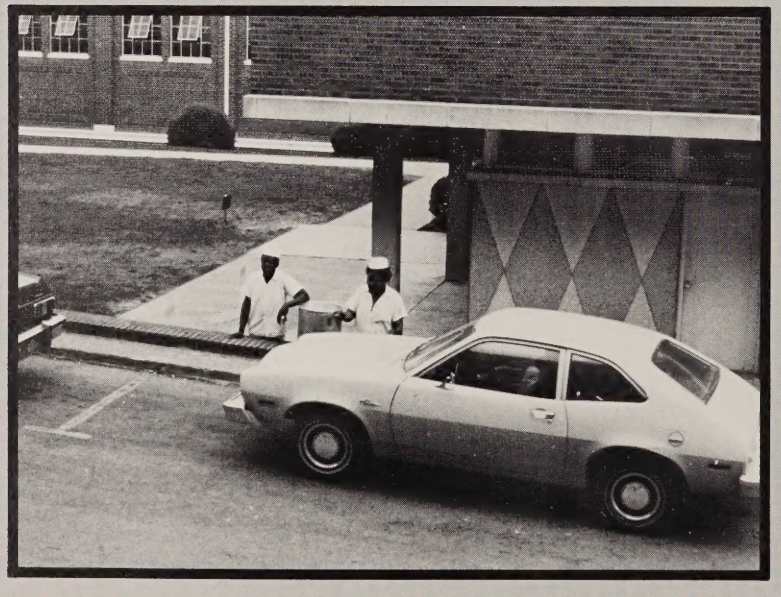


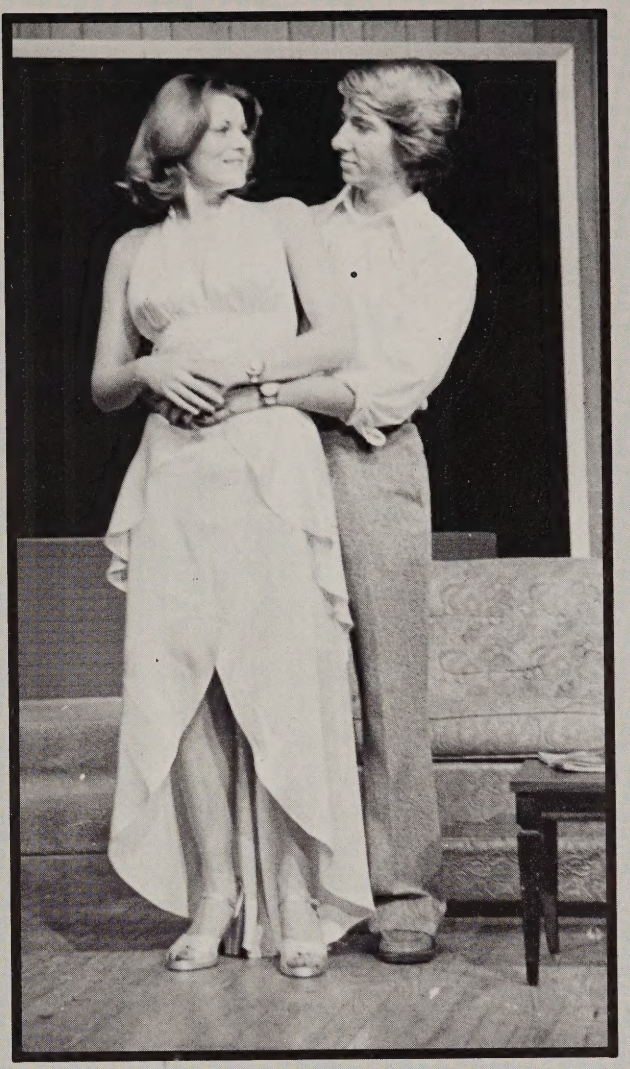


But we're busy at V.I. — always doing something . . . working hard to get those single tennis matches in before the cold sets in and the tennis ball starts to freeze in mid air . . . and hurrying to the cafeteria so you can be the first in line and peer through the windows envying the Seniors who could get in ten minutes earlier . . .









SUE

THROUGHOUT THE YEARS

What do I like to remember?
Things that are special to me —
Favorite outings, favorite folks,
A house, a spectacular tree . . .
A joy that appeared out of nowhere,
A problem I solved all alone
And those friendships
I'll always consider these
the only real treasures I own.

I still find each day too short for all the thoughts I want to think.
All the walks I want to take,
All the books I want to read,
And all the friends I want to see.
The longer I live
the more my mind dwells
upon the beauty
and wonder of the world.

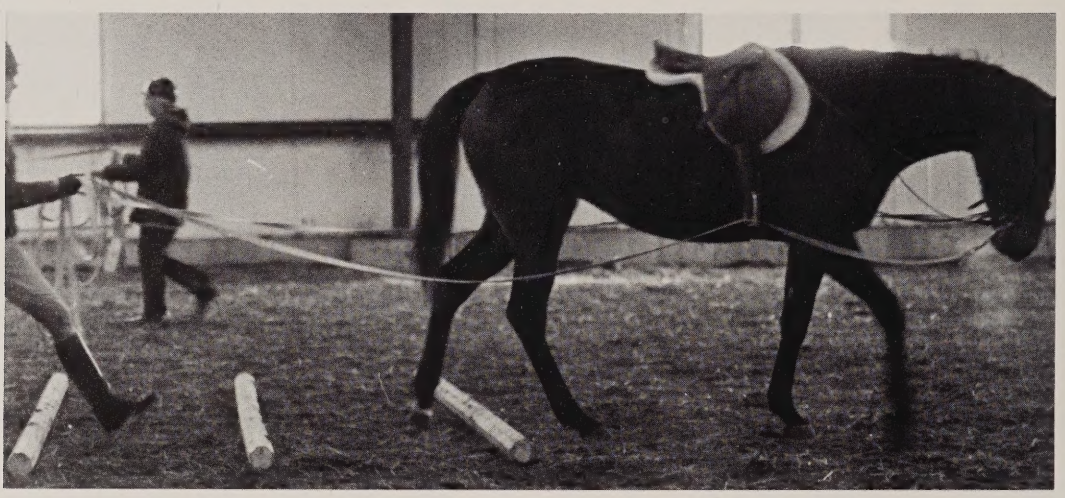
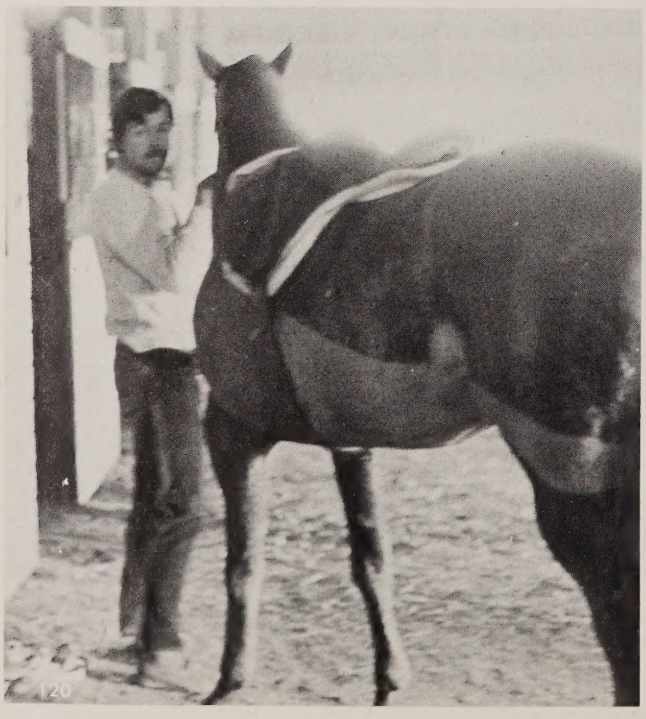
Sometimes you just can't find anything.



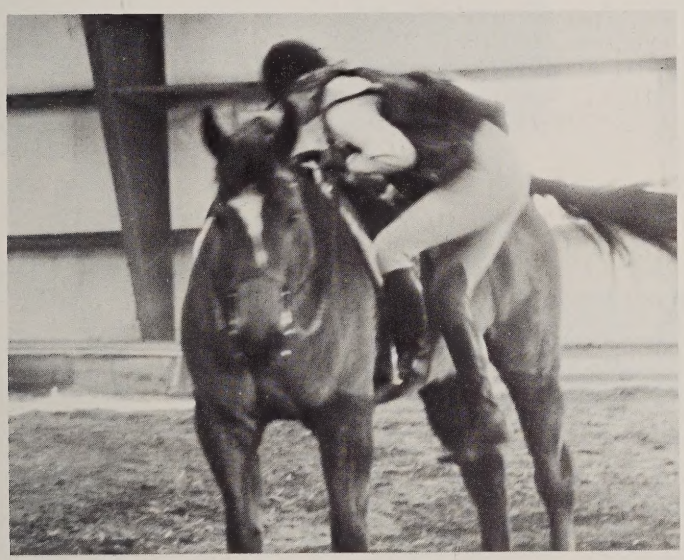
What does she think I am — a buggy horse.



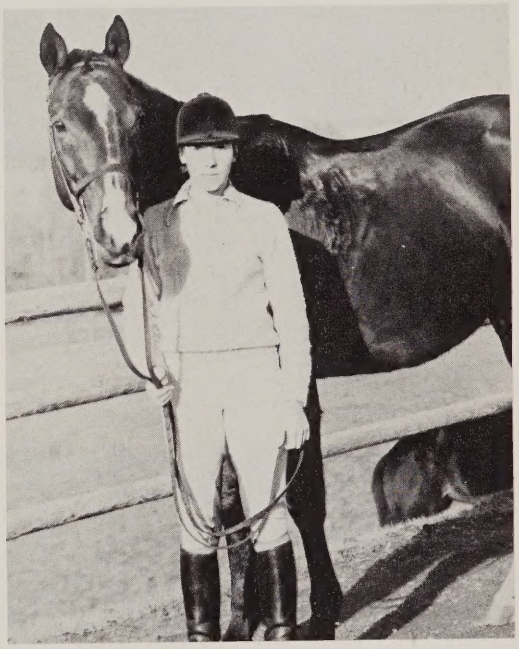
Yes?

What is this?

What do you want for nothing.

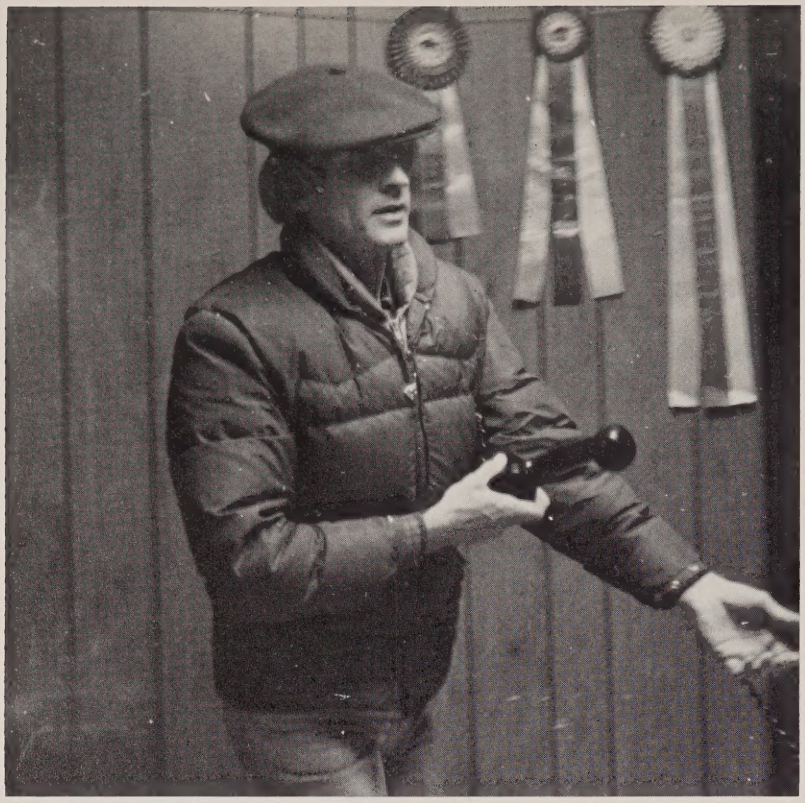


It's a long way to the top.



Think so?

You have to realize that things have changed.



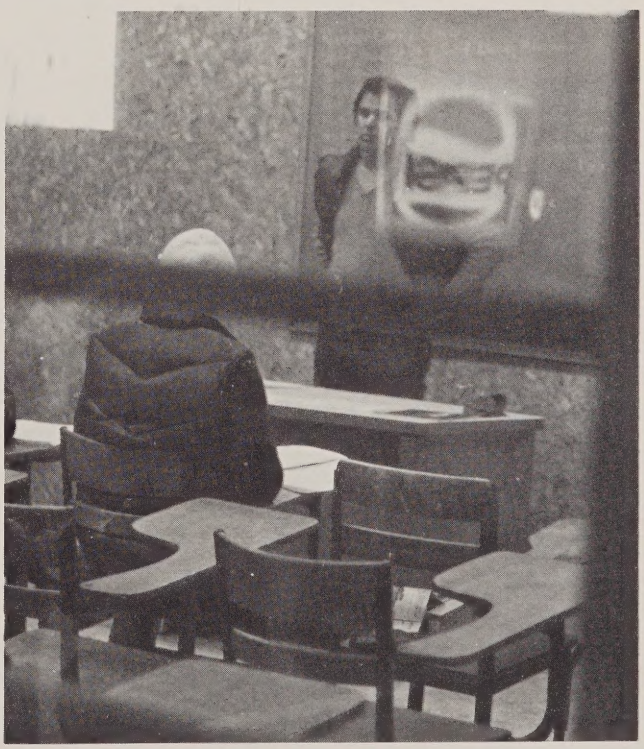
Wrong number again!

Smile you're on Candid Camera.

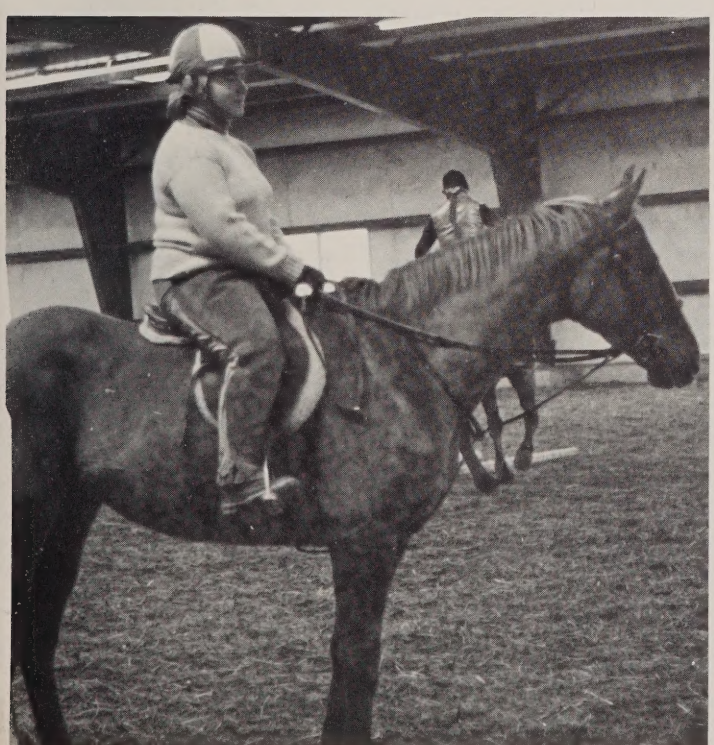
Boy have you gained weight.

Who me?

So — we all have our moods.



That is just the way things are!



Ah — finally can doze for a few minutes.
